

Key points of the Basic Policies for Economic and Fiscal Management and Reform

Economic and fiscal policy management and its basic strategy for “a new decade of revival”

- The “three-arrows” strategy or “Abenomics”, whose components work to complement each other, has been implemented in an integrated manner. This has already significantly changed market expectations. The real economy is also picking up. The Basic Policies presents macroeconomic vision and the path to be followed to achieve that vision.
- The government is committed to the steady and persistent implementation of the growth strategy, as well as priority policy measures stated in the Basic Policies. It aims to end deflation as early as possible and revitalize its economy. The Basic Policies presents the economic and social vision that Japan should pursue through the implementation of policies.

Three positive cycles to be fulfilled
