

Outline of the Economy Watchers Survey

1. Purpose of the survey

The purpose of the survey is to promptly gain an accurate grasp of region-by-region economic trends. By enlisting the cooperation of people holding jobs that enable them to observe activity closely related to regional economy, these survey results can be used as basic material for assessing economic trends.

2. Scope of the survey

(1) Survey area

The survey covers eleven regions across the country: Hokkaido, Tohoku, Northern Kanto, Southern Kanto, Koshinetsu, Tokai, Hokuriku, Kinki, Chugoku, Shikoku, Kyushu, and Okinawa. Prefectures included in each region are as follows. (The January 2000 survey covered five regions: Hokkaido, Tohoku, Tokai, Kinki, and Kyushu. The survey conducted in February through September 2000 covered six regions: the five regions above plus Kanto.)

6. DI (Diffusion Index) computation method

The following points are assigned in accordance with the one-to-five scale for each category of response, and the DI is calculated by multiplying the points by the component ratio of each response category.

	Better	Slightly better	Unchanged	Slightly worse	Worse
Assessment	Will get better (Good)	Will get slightly better (Slightly good)	Will remain unchanged (Neither good nor bad)	Will get slightly worse (Slightly bad)	Will get worse (Bad)
Point	+1	+0.75	+0.5	+0.25	0
