

Designation of International Agreements Applying to Government Procurement

March 7, 2014
Chairperson of the Council of Government Procurement Review decision
January 15, 2015 – Revision
December 30, 2018 – Revision

Under the provisions of 1.(1) and 2.(1) of "Establishment of the Council of Government Procurement Review" (Cabinet decision, December 1, 1995), I hereby designate the following international agreement to apply in relation to government procurement in addition to the Agreement on Government Procurement drafted in Marrakesh on April 15, 1994, the revised Agreement on Government Procurement created by the protocol regarding the revision of the Agreement on Government Procurement drafted in Geneva on March 30, 2012.

1. Agreement between Japan and the Republic of Singapore for a New-Age Economic Partnership
2. Agreement between Japan and the United Mexican States for the Strengthening of the Economic Partnership
3. Agreement between Japan and the Republic of Chile for a Strategic Economic Partnership
4. Agreement on Free Trade and Economic Partnership between Japan and the Swiss Confederation
5. Agreement between Japan and the Republic of Peru for an Economic Partnership
6. Agreement between Japan and Australia and for an Economic Partnership
7. Comprehensive and Progressive Agreement for Trans-Pacific Partnership